Atomic fallout scans the sky
Another place where people die
And with a massive final punch
We left a world of pain

And now pollution's everywhere
Another death is in the air
A million people left alone
Down in their desperate, blackened homes

Tomorrow there'll be no sun
Hanging high up in the sky
Tomorrow all dead and gone
And I wish that I could fly

We are lost in the future
We are lost in a dream
We can't control, no way

So tell me now computer God
Is there a way to leave the quod
On this merciless ride
When someone faces you will die

We plug our lives into machines
And as they're guiding our dreams
We're individually lost
As we are nailed to our cross

Tomorrow there'll be a sun
Hanging high up in the sky
Tomorrow I'm dead and gone
Oh, I wish that I could fly

We are lost in the future
We are lost, it's a nightmare
We are lost in the future
We are lost in a dream we'll never see

Our hearts live forever
And dreams arrive
Forever and ever

We ride the sky

All hope is lost
But nothing gained
I'm crying again
Is this the end?

Lost in the future
We are lost, it's a nightmare
We are lost in the future
We are lost in a dream

We're lost so lost
We're lost so lost
We're lost, we're lost
We all are lost
