Through the night
Through every lonely night
Never been so far away
Never seen a brighter day
Never did know what to say
Nothing came out anyway
Two by two they follow you
Holding torches high heads down

Plant a gland in neutral clay
Waiting for the light of day
Rosa's telling me to stay
Nothing's leavin' any way
Hand in hand we head inland
Holding torches high heads down

And they all wanted a slice, you know
And they all wanted a slice, you know
And they all wanted a slice

Through the night
Through every lonely night

Through the night
Through every lonely night

Fires hanging in the air
Animals at hold, you're scared
Beckoning to keep me 'ware
Never felt so debonair
Two by two they follow you
Holding torches high heads down

And they all wanted a slice, you know
And they all wanted a slice, you know
And they all wanted a slice

Through the night
Through every lonely night

Through the night

Through every lonely night

Never been so far away (Never been so far away)
Never been so far away (Never been so far away)
Never been so far away (Never been so far away)
Never been so far away (Never been so far away)
Never been so far away (Never been so far away)
Never been so far away (Never been so far away)
Never been so far away (Never been so far away)
Never been so far away (Never been so far away)
Never been so far away (Never been so far away)
(Never been so far away)
(Never been so far away)
(Never been so far away)
(Never been so far away)
(Never been so far away)
