Radiating by your luminescent flashy lights
Deep enough to trap you in the silence of the night
Stranded in a swimming pool a thousand (?) deep
Waking up I wonder if they took me in my sleep

But they won't silence you with their violence
They won't silence you with their troup de loup
No, they won't silence you with their violence, no, no

Razor-tooth lie underneath, waiting for my next move
Sharp enough to fit inside the tiniest micro groove
Your love affair with trench warfare has failed to make you see
I've been waiting patiently for you to come for me

But they won't silence you with their violence
They won't silence you with their troup de loup
No, they won't silence you with their violence
They won't silence you with their troup de loup

And they won't silence you with their violence
They won't silence you with their troup de loup
No, they won't silence you with their violence, no, no
No, no, no

But they won't silence you with their violence
They won't silence you with their troup de loup
No, they won't silence you with their violence, no, no

Now you're troup de loup
Now you're troup de loup
Now you're troup de loup
Now you're troup de loup
Now you're troup de loup
Now you're troup de loup
Now you're troup de loup
Now you're troup de loup
