I'm watching the mountains
I'm watching the sea
Observing the creatures
I am lost set me free

Across the Heavens I made my way
I've seen empires rise and blown away
I have arrived my destiny but after all
There's just emptiness in me

Out in the darkness
I am going mad
Where are the others
There's silence in my head

'Cause I'm a watcher in the sky
I've seen universes die
Out in the cold my systems overload
I am really lost in time
Watcher in the sky, sky

I'm trapped in this nightmare
Endless tortures and pain
Milleniums have gone by
Uhh, it drives me insane

Who am I now?
I'm not man, I'm not machine
I gave my life away
For the Iron Savior dream

'Cause I'm a watcher in the sky
I've seen universes die
Out in the cold my systems overload
I am really lost in time
Watcher in the sky, sky

Hooked to the circuits of a lifeless cold machine
Lost in a world of artificial means
Ripped out of my body
I'll stand the test of time
Am I perpetual? Am I divine?

I'm a watcher in the sky
My soul has drowned in the tears I cannot cry
I'm the watcher, chosen one
But I am lost in time

I'm a watcher in the sky
I've seen the years go by
I am the chosen one, out in the cold
My systems overload
And I am lost in time
Watcher in the sky

Watcher in the sky
Watcher in the sky
Watcher in the sky
Watcher in the sky
