Take these strings and break me open
I've fallen through the cracks
My mind has bled out all these thoughts
And now there's no going back
We've fallen too hard
We've fallen too fast
We've fallen so far
And now there's no going back

(chorus)
This is our ending
And I'm Taking it back
No more excuses
There's no more regrets
This is our last time
And its taking a life time
This is our last time

As this face hits the pavement
I bleed out through these cracks
My eyes will turn black to white
And now there's no going back
We've fallen too hard
We've fallen too fast
We've fallen so far
And now there's no going back

(chorus)
This is our ending
And I'm Taking it back
No more excuses
There's no more regrets
This is our last time
And its taking a life time
This is our last time

(Outro)
Someone catch me as I'm falling
This could be our ending
