The world might end, the night might fall,
Rain on down and cover us all, and drown us with the burden of our sins.
Maybe I'll look you in the eye tell you 'you don't wanna die'
Maybe I'll hold my breath and jump right in..
Maybe I'll hold my breath and jump right in.
I never saw you coming from inside my little prison.
Your autograph would really bide me time.
If you think you are the reason, give me something to believe in.
It's always darkest right before the dawn..
It's always darkest right before the dawn.
I confess I've lost control.
I let my guard down, I let the truth out.
Oh, I confess I've lost control.
I let my guard down, I let the truth out.
Final celebration of bad hallucination.
Flip a coin and see which way I fall.
The Charlatan is singing.
We love to watch him killing,
And suffer through a never-ending day..
Suffer through a never-ending day.
I can feel I've lost control.
I let my guard down, I let the truth out.
Oh, I can feel I've lost control.
You let your guard down, you let the truth out.
(Spoken word)
I can feel I've lost control..
Oh I can feel we've lost control.
I was suffocating.
Oh, I confess I've lost control.
I was suffocating,
I was suffocating,
I can feel we've lost control. $
I feel like I'm done.
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh,
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooooh.
