

Garbage "Kick My Ass"

I'm so sorry
You had to kick my a
You said I ruined your life
I didn't mean to do that

I had to untangle
Where we was intertwined
Were you strangling me
Or were you breathing so fine

The jam I was in
When things weren't working out
Lead me to the brunt
Of your swinging bout

I'm so sorry
I regret everything
But what can I do
To have you take back that swing

I'm so sorry
A scuffle ensued
But things are much better now
I guess thanks to you

The jam I was in
When things weren't working out
Lead me to the brunt
Of your swinging bout

I'm so sorry
You had to pull my hair
I was taking care of business
A lot of business giving there
