If I give you the world
I will make it black
If I give you air to breathe
If I give you air to breathe

If I give you sight
I will stab my eyes
If I give you all my trust
I am used and feel so bruised

So we'll make a mess of our lives
I'll paint your world in black
Too cold for you to get out

So I'll stop your grieving heart machine
It won't be any wonder
But you'll be deep down in slumber

If I give you time
I will choke in time
If I hold you at this line
If I hold you at this line

I would never feel so left behind
I could straighten up this hive
And let you feel behind

If I gave you eyes too blind to see
Undoubtedly I win
The all the thoughts you stole inside

If I gave you a tug
You could scream out loud
Instead of sucking it all in, drown into your sin

So we'll make a mess of our lives
I'll paint your world in black
Too cold for you to get out

So I'll stop your grieving heart machine
It won't be any wonder
But you'll be deep down in slumber

Deep down inside
Deep down inside

If I give you the world
I will make it black
If I give you air to breathe
If I give you air to breathe

If I give you sight
I will stab my eyes
If I give you all my trust
I am used and feel so bruised

So we'll make a mess of our lives
I'll paint your world in black
Too cold for you to get out

So I'll stop your grieving heart machine
It won't be any wonder
But you'll be deep down in slumber

If I give you time
I will choke in time
If I hold you at this line
If I hold you at this line

I would never feel so left behind
I could straighten up this hive
And let you feel behind

If I gave you eyes too blind to see
Undoubtedly I win
The all the thoughts you stole inside

If I gave you a tug
You could scream out loud
Instead of sucking it all in, drown into your sin

So we'll make a mess of our lives
I'll paint your world in black
Too cold for you to get out

So I'll stop your grieving heart machine
It won't be any wonder
But you'll be deep down in slumber

Deep down inside
Deep down inside

So we'll make a mess of our lives

I'll paint your world in black
Too cold for you to get out

So I'll stop your grieving heart machine
It won't be any wonder
But you'll be deep down in slumber
