Album: Watchfires

Keep rollin', oh keep rollin' on Keep singin' all your precious songs
Was it somethin' that somebody said
Just keep rollin'

When the keeper of the shop
Is closing up too soon
Unleash an arrow at the heavens
You know he'll be back soon

Whoa sweet Jah won't you
Never stop building on me
never presiding over me
force me back, back on my knees

keep movin' on with every day when you got so little to say keep doin' what you do when it just won't come to you keep rollin'

When the keeper of the shop
Is closing up too soon
Unleash an arrow at the heavens
You know he'll be back soon

Never stop building on me
never presiding over me
force me back, back on my knees

keep rollin', oh keep rollin' when the road is much too long
