With all of my heart I know I could love you
But with all of my soul Iâ€™m driftinâ€™ away
And with all of my mind I know you can save me
From myself and anything else

With all of my strength I wanna reach out for
And with every breath, call out your name
And with every step I just wanna turn around And say â€™baby make it okayâ€™

But Iâ€™m so afraid that youâ€™ve forgiven one too many times
And Iâ€™m so afraid to give my heart again just to have a change of mind
And Iâ€™m not quite sure that you can trust me and I would hate to have you find
Me again, baby like the wind, driftinâ€™ away
Iâ€™m driftinâ€™ away

And far in the heart I know Iâ€™ve disappointed you Although Iâ€™m real sorry I donâ€™t know how to say this time
But if I would lose you I know, I know Iâ€™d go completely out of my mind
Iâ€™m running out of time

And Iâ€™m so afraid that youâ€™ve forgiven one too many times
And Iâ€™m so afraid to give my heart again just to have
a change of mind
And Iâ€™m not quite sure that you can trust me and I
would hate to have you find
Me again, baby like the wind, driftinâ€™ away
Driftinâ€™ away

You see my heart at night
Falling down
Falling for you
Falling down
Falling for you, oh yeah yeah yeah
