One heart, one heart, one heart at a time

Oh the sound of children laughing was like music to my ears

It's like a choir of angels and they're singing crystal clear

It's the sound of freedom, it's the sound of trust

It's the way their eyes shine, cos they believe in us

It just takes one heart, one heart, one heart at a time
(can't you see it)

We'll be holding on so strong with your hand in mine

We'll be the links in a powerful chain

That can erase the tears and the pain

That's how it starts, one heart, one heart, one heart at a time

For the sight of children running just as fast as they can go

Makes a breeze so warm and wonderful it whispers through your soul

They're running t'wards tomorrow, running t'wards their dreams

And we can pave their long road if we work as a team

It just takes one heart, one heart, one heart at a time
(can't you see it)

We'll be holding on so strong with your hand in mine

We'll be the links in a powerful chain

That can erase the tears and the pain

That's how it starts, one heart, one heart, one heart at a time

We can all be heroes in the eyes of a child

When they're looking up at us for help

Yes and we can make the difference, we can go the distance

If we are willing to give of ourselves

Just tell one heart, one heart, one heart at a time (get the picture)

And we'll be holding on so strong with your hand in mine
We'll be the links in a powerful chain
That's how it starts, one heart, one heart, one heart at a time
One heart, one heart, one heart at a time
(We can erase the tears and the pain)
One heart, one heart, one heart at a time
(My heart, your heart, our hearts)
One heart, one heart, one heart at a time
(It's time we start, yeah)
One heart, one heart, one heart at a time
