(Harley Allen - Carson Chamberlain)

Smoky old bars, bright neon lights
Good ole boys and girls of the night
An ice cold beer and a good shot of brandy
I've always had a sweet tooth for the devil's candy.

And I've fought it all my life and the battle's now a war
But I'll get up tomorrow nd I'll fight it all once more
I want to do what's right but I'll never understand me
I've always had a sweet tooth for the devil's candy.

Well, I've played the cards and I've rolled the dice
Well, I gave up heaven for a fool's paradise
I once lost an angel when a bad girl was handy
I've always had a sweet tooth for the devil's candy.

And I've fought it all my life and the battle's now a war
But I'll get up tomorrow nd I'll fight it all once more
I want to do what's right but I'll never understand me
I've always had a sweet tooth for the devil's candy.

--- Instrumental ---

I want to do what's right but I'll never understand me
I've always had a sweet tooth for the devil's candy.

Yes I've always had a sweet tooth for the devil's candy...
