Just like every lock's got to have a key
Every river goes looking for the sea
And when you plant a seed it reaches for the sky
It's just the way it is, nobody wonders why
Like coffee needs a cup, you know that it ain't much good without it
We were meant to be together, no doubt about it

Like a hammer and a nail, socks and shoes
We go hand in hand like rhythm and blues
What good is a man if he hasn't got a dream
About as good as a car with no gasoline
You're the one I'm dreaming of, got to have your love, can't live without it
We were meant to be together, no doubt about it
No there ain't no doubt about it

Something was missing, it was making me blue
But all I ever needed was you

Just like every lock's got to have a key
Every river goes looking for the sea
And when you plant a seed it reaches for the sky
It's just the way it is, girl with you and I
Like coffee needs a cup, you know that it ain't much
good without it
We were meant to be together, no doubt about it
No there ain't no doubt about it

Like a hammer and a nail, socks and shoes
We go hand in hand like rhythm and blues
What good is a man if he hasn't got a dream
About as good as a car with no gasoline
You're the one I'm dreaming of, got to have your
love, can't live without it
We were meant to be together, no doubt about it
