Wake up Monday morning, lookin' at another 50 hour week

Hit the ground, black coffee, runnin' on 2 hours of sleep

Damned old truck won't start and I've got some place to be by eight

You spin around in circles, cookin' breakfast, runnin' late too

You're stressed out, stretched thin, sometimes it's just like a zoo

We come home tired and weary after making it through one more day

And we fly by night, wrapped around each other

'Neath the pale moonlight

Everything in this great big world feels right

Baby, you and I, we fly by night

Well, traffic's backed up bumper to bumper for 15 miles

Call you on the phone said, "Hang on babe, it's gonna be a while"

You say, "Hurry home lover, I'm wearing nothing but a smile for you"

Already got my coat off as I pull into the drive

Sometimes I think I must be the luckiest man alive

When you pull me down on the couch and you slowly slide off my boots

And we fly by night, wrapped around each other

'Neath the pale moonlight

Everything in this great big world feels right

Baby, you and I, we fly by night

No, I wouldn't care

If the sun never shined again, again

'Cause we fly by night, wrapped around each other

'Neath the pale moonlight

Everything in this great big world feels right

Baby, you and I, we fly by night

Baby, you and I, we fly by night
Whoa
