Well I've seen that look a thousand times
And I know that sparkle in your eyes
And I know what it means tonight
That's a dress you wore when we first met
And it always means you want to let your hair down
Oh and you just might
I've never seen you look so happy
You never looked so good in love

When I look into your eyes I still get weak
And when I'm this close to you I just can't speak
And it's hard to keep my hands to myself
When I know I could never love anybody else
You're all I want, you're all I need
And it's so damn hard to believe
That's you without me

Well that's your third glass of chardonnay
And he sure seems to know his way
And what to do and what to say
Well it's obvious that you've moved on
I'm still getting past you being gone
And he's going home with you tonight

When I look into your eyes I still get weak
And when I'm this close to you I just can't speak
And it's hard to keep my hands to myself
When I know I could never love anybody else
You're all I want, you're all I need
And it's so damn hard to believe
Can't believe that's you without me

Don't think you ever looked more beautiful
And you've never been more gone
When I look into your eyes I still get weak
And when I'm this close to you I just can't speak
And it's hard to keep my hands to myself
When I know I could never love anybody else
You're all I want you're all I need
And it's so damn hard to believe
I can't believe
That's you without me

That thatâ€™s you without me
