stepped out into the blue felt the wind hit my face,
Before my chute opened I felt my heart race.

I was fallin'

Nop, that's just fallin'

And off the coast of Australia I dove way down deep
For all that I saw of that Great Barrier Reef
It was nothin', compared to you it was nothin'.

I got lightning in my veins and thunder in my chest,
All tangled up with you and tryin' to catch my breath.
Been chasing that sensation halfway round the world
And lookin' back on what we had
Well I've done it all and I've seen it all
But I can't find a feelin' like that.

Well I've wound up in some town in Spain runnin' with the bulls,

Tryin' to catch another thrill with a thousand other fools.

We were runnin', Aw but that's just runnin'

When I started pushin' 30 it started pushin' back.

Well, how was I to know till now you'd be such a hard act to follow.

Nothin' seems to follow.

I got lightning in my veins and thunder in my chest,
All tangled up with you and tryin' to catch my breath.
I been chasing that sensation halfway round the world
And lookin' back on what we had
Well I've done it all and I've seen it all
But I can't find a feelin' like that.

It's like flyin' down some back road at midnight with your eyes closed and the headlights off.

Your life been searchin' everywhere,

Can't find that feelin' anywhere.

You're all I want, now all I want.

Said lightning in my veins and thunder in my chest,
All tangled up with you and tryin' to catch my breath.
I been chasing that sensation halfway round the world

And lookin' back on what we had
Well I've done it all and I've seen it all
But I can't find a feelin' like that.

That's right, I've done it all and I've seen it all
But I can't find a feelin' like that.
