it only took a minute for us to find it end it i guess wed seen it comin,for sometime and it only took one hour,to sit and talk it over but it took us all night long to say goodbye now the flame is gone i know, and the ashes have grown cold and the love we have,well never have again but theres one emor left,it must have never died, cause it took us all night long to say goodbye too many tears have fallen too many dreams were broken and holdin on would be a waste of time but sometimes i know i wonder, if it was really over

but theres one emor left,it must have never died,

theres one emor left,it must have never died,
