Hot sex in the summertime.
I get up just to pass you winkin'
On my way out of town,
But he's a jailor, a sedentary man.

Wavin' my goodbyes to a foreign land, but now my baby is all alone.

Who stole the diamond?
There's always a clue where
Interrogation is only a room,
Two knees in your book of who's who.

I'm attracted to you.

It's not city lights, it's just now getting bright.
I'm a stone sinking through.
It's fun spending nights in no fuss
Party tights.
Now I'm sacred to you.
It's not a loss of sight, it's just a temporary blight.
How I'm married to you.
It's not black and white, it's just sitting tight.

Then, Pow! Pow!
The city sleeps alone.
