Larry Loftin/Amy Powers

I'm always thinking about you,
I wonder if you can tell,
These things I'm feeling inside me,
I keep them all to myself.
Scared to show my true emotions,
don't want to love alone,
'Cause I fall so deep,
you never know how far I go,
And I know why, hearts beat desperately,
I fall so deep.
Some people think love is foolish,
while others think its a game,
I think that love is a fire,
I'm burning up in your flame
I'm so lost in my emotions, wanting you ever more.

'Cause I fall so deep,
you never know how far I go,
And I know why, hearts beat desperately,
I fall so deep,
I fall so deep,
I fall so deep.
And I've come so close to the part,
where I reveal my heart to you,
But I lose my nerve,
can't find the words to tell you that it's true.
I fall so deep, 'cause I fall so deep,
You never know how far I go,
And I know why, hearts beat, desperately,
I fall so deep, I fall so deep,
I fall so deep, I fall so deep.
