I'm dead and tired of her mom's crying
Every other weekend, one of us is dying
When we used to party, I remember
That the night would not end with us getting fly

Tell me, what is really going on?
Can't we see what's right and wrong?
We can't keep this up for too long
Time is running out

Time is running out on you
You know what you're gonna do
A party is the only place
You hear them say, yeah

(Put your hands up)
If you hear what I say, come on
(Put your hands up)
We gotta find a better way, yeah

(Put your hands up)
I'll say this, if we try
(Put your hands up)
And reach for the sky

I know things are tough, so take my advice
You got lucky once, I doubt you will be twice
'Put your hands up' is what you say
What you didn't know, is five of us on the way

Tell me, what is really going on?
Can't we see what's right and wrong?
We can't keep this up for too long
Time is running out

Time is running out on you
You know what you're gonna do
A party is the only place
You hear them say, yeah

(Put your hands up)
If you hear what I say, come on

(Put your hands up)
You gotta find a better way, yeah

(Put your hands up)
I'll say this, if we try
(Put your hands up)
And reach for the sky

(Put your hands up)
You know what you gotta do
(Put your hands up)
And feet, you gotta move

(Put your hands up)
I'll say this, if we try
(Put your hands up)
And reach for the sky

The master plan will interrupt
The world, to us, seems so corrupt
We just cannot keep this up
Can you hear me when I say?
Come on

We gotta start to talk about
We need to try and figure it out
So that there will never be doubt
Next time that you hear them say

(Put your hands up)
You gotta hear what I say
(Put your hands up)
You gotta find a better way

(Put your hands up)
I'll say this, if we try
(Put your hands up)
And reach for the sky

(Put your hands up)
Can't we see what's right and wrong?
(Put your hands up)
Time is running out

(Put your hands up)
I'll say this, if we try
(Put your hands up)
And reach for the sky

What is really going on?
(Put your hands up)

Can't we see what's right and wrong?
We can't keep this up for too long
(Put your hands up)
Time is running out

Time is running out on you
(Put your hands up)
