It's been such a long day
Now that you're on your way
I can just see your smile

Mommy's eyes and daddy's nose
Love you from head to toe
You're such a precious child

Chorus
So Addy grow up strong
Make this life your own
I can't wait to watch you grow
And melt that December snow

Won't be long till you start school
Everything will be so brand new
Your mom and dad will be so scared

You'll learn to read and write
Maybe even fly a kite
With the wind blowing in your hair

Chorus

You are your daddy's pride and joy
Gonna play with a million toys
And have so much fun

I love you like my own
And will no matter where you roam
In this great big world

Chorus x 2

So Addy grow up strong
Make this world your own
I can't wait to watch you grow
And melt that december snow
