If you love me why do you sleep with my friends
These sleepless nights seem to never end
I watched you cheat and walk back thru my door
I never picked you for such a cheating whore

Chorus

But you don't love nobody
With you legs up in the air
You sleep around with all my friends
Just like you just don't care
Unaware

Girls strut around like a piece of meat
Baby Girl your such a cheat
But your wicked ways are like kryptonight
Your not even worth the fight... Cause

Chorus

Bridge

But the day will someday come
When baby girl you'll start to run
And find yourself all alone
Then find your way way back home

Lead build

Chorus

But you can love somebody
With your arms up in the air
Girl your love showers my soul
The sunlight glistens thru your hair
But your unaware

Oh now baby your unaware
Come on Mama now take me home
