By Gary Chapman
Ricky's movin' in with Rhonda
Rhonda still makes moves on me
I have a wife I'm very fond of
And our love will always be
But any two fools can make love
It ain't no dark mystery, no
Any two fools can make love
Oh, but it takes two people
Two hardworking people
To build a life together
And make love history, yeah
Make love history, yeah
Make love history, yeah
Make love history, yeah
Too many happy homes are haunted
Too many hearts don't keep their words
Too many babies come unwanted
Too many others go unheard
Because any two fools can make love
It ain't no dark mystery, no
Any two fools can make love
But it takes two people
Two hardworking people
To build a life together
And make love history, yeah
Make love history, yeah
Make love history, yeah
Make love history, yeah
Oh, but you know it takes two people
Two hardworking people
To build a life together
And make love history, yeah
Make love history, yeah
Make love history, yeah
Make love history, yeah
