We said I love you with initials and an arrow
Hearts were carved, our lips touched
And the love we chose was on the straight and narrow
And love will be our anchor
We know the days will bring us things we're not prepared for
Night will fall, love will call
And every morning we will wake up feeling cared for
And love will be our anchor
Life's not easy
And it helps if you are lucky
Rain will fall on the good and the bad
I will give you
Everything that I am able
And love will be our anchor
And when you can't believe the answers
To the simplest of questions
And your heart has grown cold
Love is still the rock of ages
And the rock will not be shaken
It's an anchor to hold
And when the waves have tossed our lives in reckless motion
Wind has blown, we have grown
We will make it all the way across this ocean
And love will be our anchor
Life's not easy
And it helps if you are lucky
Rain will fall on the good and the bad
I will give you
Everything that I am able
And love will be our anchor
And when you can't believe the answers
To the simplest of questions
And your heart has grown cold
Love is still the rock of ages
And the rock will not be shaken
It's an anchor to hold
We said I love you with initials and an arrow
Hearts were carved and our lips touched

And the love we chose was on the straight and narrow
And love will be our anchor
This love will be our anchor
