Every time that we touch
I feel like I've been touched
So completely

When you give me your love
I know that I've been loved
So completely

Long away, every day
Baby, I'm here to stay
Gonna take this all the way

I've heard a lot of love songs but never listened
Now I'm feeling what I've been missing
Never had someone that I could say this to
I love you, completely, completely

Always loved on the run
Never gave my heart to anyone
So completely

You made half a man whole

You've rounded out my soul
So completely

Into you, through and through
Baby I never knew
I'd love someone like I do you

I've heard a lot of love songs but never listened
Now I'm feeling what I've been missing
Never had someone that I could say this to
I love you, completely

Girl I ain't holding back any part of you
You can see right down to the heart of me

I've heard a lot of love songs but never listened
Now I'm feeling what I've been missing
Never had someone that I could say this to
I love you, completely, completely, completely
