(featuring Sara Evans)

(Brad Paisley)

Mother - do not cry for me

All of this is exactly how it's supposed to be

(Sara Evans)

I'm right here. Can you hear my voice?

My life, my love, my Lord....my baby boy

(Brad Paisley)

As they nail me to this tree

Just know the Father waits for me

(Sara Evans)

God how can this be your will?

To have your son and my son killed?

(Brad Paisley)

Whatever happens...whatever you see...

Whatever your eyes tell you has become of me

This is not...

Not the end...

I am making all things new again

(Sara Evans)

I remember when you were born

In that manger where I first held

You in my arms

So many miracles and lives you've changed

And this world repays you how?

With all this pain

(Brad Paisley)

As they nail me to this tree

Just know the Father waits for me

(Sara Evans)

God how can this be your will?

To have your son and my son killed?

(Both)

Whatever happens(Whatever happens)...whatever you see(I don't wanna see)...

Whatever your eyes tell you has become of me
This is not(Tell me it's not...
Not the end...
I am making all things new again

(Brad Paisley)
Whatever happens...whatever you see...
Whatever your eyes tell you has become of me
This is not...
Not the end...
I am making all things new again

(Brad Paisley)
Whatever happens...whatever you see...
Whatever your eyes tell you has become of me
This is not(No)...
Not the end...
I am making all things new again
