You're nice I've told you once or twice
And here is my advice you're ev'rything a girl should be;
So here I'll whisper in your ear
And make it very clear how beautiful you are to me
Tonight
Tonight heaven must have smiled o-o-on you
Tonight
Tonight can't believe my eyes looking at you
Oh yes! you're beautiful beautiful
Didn't I tell you oh didn't I tell you

You were beautiful beautiful
Didn't I tell you oh
(So) there you're wonderful I swear
You make me stop and stare
You're ev'rything I'm dreaming of;
You see there's you and there is me
That's how we'll always be 'cos you and I were made for love
Tonight tonight all the stars shine down o-o-on you
Tonight tonight can't you see my eyes shining too
Oh yes! you're beautiful . . .
Don't you know are you?
Beautiful
Beautiful
What are you?
Beautiful
Beautiful; what are you?
Beautiful
Beautiful I'll always tell you you're

Oh yes! you're beautiful
