Hello pretty stranger
Can I sit with you awhile
I'm kinda tired and lonesome
Seems like I been ten thousand miles
Just wanta talk to you awhile

You know I'm sure where I'm goin'
But I can tell you where I've been
I guess it really doesn't matter
'cause I'm just lookin' for a friend
I might not pass this way again

Got no time now for thinkin'
Got no time to say goodbye

I got time for one more drink babe
And I got time to say goodbye
Yes I can make it if I try

It's gettin' late, guess I'll be goin'
I hope I didn't bring you down
I could come up for a minute
If you don't mind me hangin' round
'cause I'm a stranger here in town
Yeah I'm a stranger in the town
Yeah I'm a stranger here in town
