Gary Glitter - Just fancy that

I been here before, Knocking on your door
Standing in the hall, waiting for your call
Now to my surprise, I looked into your eyes
Now you want me back, just fancy that. Just fancy that.
You knocked me flat, just fancy that
You told me it's the end

Now you've opened up a gain, now I'm not so sure that I'll come through that door, I'm not coming back, just fancy that. .

I been thinking clear, while I'm waiting here
You took me a part, from the very start
Now I'm not so sure, I'll walk through this door
I'm not coming back, just fancy that. Just fancy that.
You want me back, just fancy that
First you don't, now you do

I'll just turn my back on you, I might call you back just fancy that. Just fancy that.

One last thing to say, then I'm on my way
If you're on your own, call me on the telephone
Please don't hesitate, if your have to wait
I might call you back, just fancy that. Just fancy that.
