Gary Glitter - Satan's Daughter

If you look at her full colour portrait
You'll see she's feeling ten feet tall
The way others see her

She thinks if you lay there beside her
You'll forget about the way she lies
Such a brazen excuse for a woman
With such a wrong sense of pride

She is Satan's daughter
Can't you see?
She's just a vicious child
She is Satan's Daughter
and she only want's use you for a little while

She must have a demon inside her Cause that's the way it truly seems Someone should set her on fire
Jesus Knows, it should be me

But she got such a power of attraction
You better stay a mile away
Just pray for a god to take action and take the girl away

She is Satan's daughter
Can't you see?
She's just a vicious child
She is Satan's Daughter
and she only want's use you for a little while
