Gary Glitter - You

You, give me babies
You, make a house a home
You, take care of business
When I'm out on the road

You, catch me from falling
When the world moves from under my shoes

And I could never feel love
Anymore love than I feel for you

Oh you, light up my darkness
You, understand my moods

You, show me some kindness
When I'm cold and subdued

You surround your colours
Through the grey skies, the sun shines through

And I could never feel love
Anymore love than I feel for you

Never feel love
Never feel love

Oh, never feel love
Never feel love
Never feel love
Anymore love than I feel for you

Never feel love
Never feel love
Never feel love
Anymore love than I feel for you

And everytime I see you
You make me feel good
You make me feel

Like I never felt before

And everytime I hold you
In my arms, baby
I know I love you more

Never feel love
Never feel love

Oh, never feel love
Never feel love
Never feel love
Anymore love than I feel for you

Never feel love
Never feel love
Never feel love
Anymore love than I feel for you
