I'm so so
It's late
And I forgot to take my medicine
I'm uptight and tired
In my life it's so mechanical
And,
Feeling feeling great Till I realise all the mess I'm in I'm so uninspired at a time that is so so

I'm so so
It's fate
I've lost my antihistamine
I'm finding it hard to fill in the pro's of my reasons
For living this when it's too late to be late
I don't show up at all
The gaps in my diaries speak volumes about me

I've done something wrong
At least I've done something...

Take me back to the London town
That brought me up
Cause it's bringing me down
And I will pay you solid gold my friend yeah

Would you take me back to London town
When it felt good to be around
And I will pay you solid gold my friend, my friend

Solid gold
Solid gold
Solid gold
Solid gold
Ohhhhh...

I'm so so
Today my days are unaccounted for
I found I found only too late
That I'm not alone but I'm lonely
Feeling great in a voice that didn't suit the face
He said he said they're becoming your mistakes

Remember that time is the time that it takes

I've done something wrong at least I've done something

Take me back to the London town
That brought me up cause it's bringing me down
And I will pay you solid gold my friend yeah please Take me back to the town I miss
Now morphed into antithesis of Every bit it used to be
