never try to understand me expectation make me old hide your pennies in the sand some how I am supposed to know the hardest thing to do let it go and i know we've been affected perfected
the power to charm did we serve to entertain did we find someone to blame what I said, what I did we're not the same

(chorus)
oh I am breathing (I am breathing) oh I am leaving in the morning maybe you can think about it when I'm gone could we lie behind the fables heroes and heroin

the wait here is far too much to be worth so little but will she come and stay with me

(chorus)

was it something in your head was it something in your name? give me something I can hold I can try my best to help you if you never let me down, oh never try to understand her heroes and heroin

are very unforgiving do the things that you think you should to let you know you're alive you are young you are beautiful

(chorus)

oh I am breathing (I am beathing) oh I am leaving in morning maybe you can think about it when I go
