I've been there - believe me
Crimes committed are unintentional
After the party we all went home alone
All the industry boys were still laughing and drinking
When I tumbled out of the place
And up on the wall
The princess of Hollywood way

The witton house is empty
Autumn came again and everyone scattered
Maybe it's better
If we don't have that last place to go
Well you said that you'd call
When you got your new number
I guess you've gone under again
There's room at the bar

For the princess of Hollywood way

Wine and forgiveness were all that we had Wine and forgiveness are all that I need

"Go to bed" she said, "I can stand you
And that's the only thing that we have in common

If I had a nickel for every bridge that you've burned...
You're just a single malt swamp clown preparing for splashdown
The accidents know you by name"
After all, I'm the princess of Hollywood
After all, I'm the princess of Hollywood
After all, I'm the princess of Hollywood way
