I made the mistake of sayin' I care,
She took all my pride and that wasn't fair.
I've grown so used to her lies,
It's very hard to realize,
But now I know,
I won't make that mistake again,
Mistake again,
Mistake again.

She told all my friends that I was untrue,
She took me for granted, but what could I do?
So I just stood there and cried,
And now I know the reason why,
There was another guy,
I won't make that mistake again,
Mistake again,
Mistake again.

(Piano Solo)

So I just stood there and cried,
And now I know the reason why,
There was another guy,
I won't make that mistake again,
Mistake again,
Mistake again
