(Gary Moore)

One, two, three, four.
Let me tell you about the Texas blues.

I went down south to Dallas,
To hear those cowboys wail.
Came across that Billy Gibbons
Ridin' on that ZZ trail.

I just can't lose with the Texas blues.
I said I just can't lose with the Texas blues.
The Texas blues.

Got myself in Double Trouble,
When I saw that Texas Flood.
Stevie said The Sky Is Crying,
Superstition's in his blood.

I just can't lose with the Texas blues.
I said I just can't lose with the Texas blues.
The Texas blues.
How-how-how-how.

Come on!

I heard that Houston Twister.
He could run you off the tracks.
When he plays that Cold Cold Feeling,
You get the shivers down your back.

I just can't lose with the Texas blues.
I said I just can't lose with the Texas blues.
The Texas blues.
A-how-how-how-how.

Well, I'm going back to Dallas.
Won't go waitin' for no bus.
Ridin' off into the sunset.
You won't see my heels for dust.

I just can't lose with the Texas blues.
I said I just can't lose with the Texas blues.
I said I just can't lose with the Texas blues.
And I just can't lose with the Texas blues.
The Texas blues.
Texas blues.
A-how-how-how-how.
A-how-how-how-how.
