Have I got the right to call myself a man
Or will I go livin' up to my name again?
When I get the chance to love I let it pass
It's not the first I lost & it won't be the last

CHORUS:

'Cause I'm a (loser) with a broken heart
(Loser) tearin' me apart
(Loser) & The Loser is my name

When I use my heart just like a stepping stone
& when it's torn apart I feel so all alone
Feelin' sorry for myself is all I do
Things don't ever turn out like I want 'em to

(Chorus)

I'm not asking much from love
Not expecting much from love
If just once I could win
I could fall in love again

In the end I know that I will always choose
I have only one direction I can choose:
Stay & let me treat her like the fool I am
Have I got the right to call myself a man?

'Cause I'm a (loser) with a broken heart
(Loser) tearin' me apart (loser)
... & fade
