(Gary Moore)

Well, how come, when you talk to her
She's listening to the music
On the radio tonight?
You can't keep her attention,
'cause she's concentratin'
On a late night movie show, alright.

I know you thought that you had it goin'
When she let you in through her front door.
But now you know, it's getting so late
And she don't want you around here no more.

I could have told you before.
You should have known it right from the start,
That the woman's in love,
The woman's in love with someone.
And you know it's gonna break your heart.
You'd better leave her alone,
The woman's in love with someone else.
But it ain't you.

I know that when she smiled
Across the room at you tonight
You thought you had it made, oh yeah.
But maybe you reminded her
Of someone else
Though you can never take his place, oh no.

'Cause when you're feelin' so lonely,
A little conversation can go a long way.
But that's as far as you're gonna get,
'cause she's not the kind of woman to stray.

I could have told you before.
You should have known it right from the start,
That the woman's in love,
The woman's in love with someone.
And you know it's gonna break your heart.
You'd better leave her alone,

The woman's in love with someone else.

The woman's in love with me.
The woman's in love with me,
Yeah-yeah.

'Cause when you're feelin' so lonely,
A little conversation can go a long way.
But that's as far as you're gonna get,
'cause she's not the kind of woman to stray.

I could have told you before.
You should have known it right from the start,
That the woman's in love,
The woman's in love with someone.
And you know it's gonna break your heart.
You'd better leave her alone,
The woman's in love with someone.

You should have known it right from the start,
That the woman's in love,
The woman's in love with someone.
And you know it's gonna break your heart.
You'd better leave her alone,
The woman's in love with someone else.

The woman's in love with me, yeah.
