I'll see you in September
When summer is gone
Have a good time but remember
I'll be waiting back home.

And when you go out dating
With some guy all alone
Just remember I'll be waiting
When summer is gone.

When the warm June night surrounds you
Don't fall under his spell;
When he puts his arms around you
Remember that I love you so well.

And I'll see you in September
When summer is gone
Have a good time but remember
Come back to me when summer is gone.

When the warm June night surrounds you
Don't fall under his spell
When he puts his arms around you
Remember that I love you so well.

And I'll see you in September
When summer is gone
Have a good time but remember
Come back to me when summer is gone
