(Charlie Black - Austin Roberts)

Eight A.M., radio on, just for a little noise
Empty house, I just needed to hear
The sound of another voice one more day
Their all runnin' together one more day
Their all startin' to look the same.

Chorus:

Ain't no sun
Ain't no blue sky
The wind blows cold
Now that you've gone away
And tomorrow just like today
There's 100% chance of rain.

Yesterday won't go away
It hangs like an angry cloud over me
Over and done
There was so little time allowed
For all that love
Said it hurts you to give up
All my love
Oh, but look what it's doin' to me.

Chorus:

Ain't no sun
Ain't no blue sky
The wind blows cold
Now that you've gone away
And tomorrow just like today
There's 100% chance of rain.

The wind blows cold
Now that you've gone away
And tomorrow just like today
There's 100% chance of rain...
