(Gary Morris - Matt Morris - Dottie Moore)

I'm among the lucky ones
Who fell in and out of grace
And managed to be touched again
In a quiet place.

Love just came and sought me out
Looked me full in the face
And said feel love's amazing grace.

In that moment all alone
You put me in my place
And said surrender quietly
Into my embrace.

Bring your doubts
Bring your fears
Watch them be erased
And see love's amazing grace.

I had no hope and little faith
When it happened to me
I once was lost until I found
You waiting patiently.

I'm among the lucky ones
Who fell in an out of grace
You can never go back again
You can never go back again
Once you've had a taste
Of love's amazing grace...
