(Michael Bolton - Doug James)

I talked to a friend of ours just late, last night
She said you'd been drownin' in your tears
I know that it might sound strange, never wanted to cause you pain
But her words were like music to my ears.

Chorus:

Maybe we could walk away
And turn our backs on yesterday
Just move on the way most lovers do
But that's not how this story goes
I'll tell you now what heaven knows
If gettin' over me is hard to do
Baby, you should try gettin' over you.

The smile on your face was all you let me see
So I couldn't bear to let you know
While hidin' behind my pride I wanted to die inside
Just lookin' for signs you'd never show.

Chorus:

Maybe we could walk away
And turn our backs on yesterday
Just move on the way most lovers do
But that's not how this story goes
I'll tell you now what heaven knows
If gettin' over me is hard to do
Baby, you should try gettin' over you.

And it seems we played our parts too well
To find it in our hearts to tell
One another what we've both known all along
But since the day we said good-bye
We've been livin' one big lie
It's time we faced the fact that we were wrong.

To think that maybe we could walk away
And turn our backs on yesterday
Just move on the way most lovers do

But that's not how this story goes
I'll tell you now what heaven knows
If gettin' over me is hard to do
Baby, you should try
Maybe you should try
Baby you should try
Gettin' over you...
