Why do hearts feel the way they do
Why does men wanna say that I love you
Till the end of time
Till I lose my mind
Till it?s over and left so far behind

I just can?t keep it all inside
So unbelievable how much I?ve tried
Yet I call for you
I long for you
And I say the words I wish you?d want to here
Though you?re never here

Chorus:
Our hearts and though they beat as one
But in time, the time for us will never come
So I, I just go on
And just remember those eyes
That look right through my heart
The smile that shows what?s in you
That makes me wanna cry
Coz I know
I?ll never have you even for a while

Now all is said and done it seems
I keep remembering what I would call a dream
Where you came true
For a minute or two
That was all the time it took
To make me know you had to go

Repeat Chorus

Cause I know
I?ll never have you?
And I know
I?ll never have you
Even for a while?
