[Verse 1]

So many tears that I've cried so many nights asking why why all my dreams fell apart and letting go is so hard

[Verse 2]

I held my pain deep inside i thought that love was a lie i felt it might be too late i saw it all fade away but then

[chorus 1]

You gave me reason to love again you came and changed the way the story ends you'll always be here in my heart endlessly

[Verse 3]

And now my dreams have come true i found myself there in you and all the things that i missed i found them here in you kiss baby

[repeat chorus 1]

[chorus 2]

You gave me reason you're all i need you showed me love and now my heart believes you you made me see you gave me reason to be

[repeat chorus 1 & 2]
