Lonely for you
Oh, I'm so blue
Well I'm so lonely, lonely for you
I don't know what to do
Please, my baby, I'm so lonely
Darling what am I gonna do
I'm so lonely for you

I thought I was doin the right thing
I took back your engagement ring
But now I found that I was wrong
But I had to go along
Till I find another day
When you come to me and say
Darling I'm gonna be true
Then I wont be lonely for you

I need you so very much
I long for your sweet tender touch
Please come through my hearts door
Help me write prayers for
Precious little turtle dove
I'm so lonely for your love
