You chose to surrender
The best thing that's happened to you
What were you missing?
Were you just tripping?
Running away from your fear
Was the best you could do
You made this decision
You chose our division

And I have no regrets
I wish you the very best
In all that you do

Congratulations
Now you are free
You have earned your degree
Yeah, you graduated
This is your last separation from me
There'll be no more trying again
No more coming back
No more forgiving you
No more thinking that somehow the sum will be different
By using Division

Half of your friends would attend before they ever knew
Why they are going
To this party I'm throwing
They would be thinking that I would be pleading to you
To get back together
Well how about never?

You're gonna miss me, bad
So funny I had to laugh
You did this to you
Yeah you did

Congratulations
Now you are free
You have earned your degree

Yeah, you graduated
This is your last separation from me
There'll be no more trying again
No more coming back
No more forgiving you
No more thinking that somehow the sum will be different
By using Division

Congratulations
You've graduated
You finally got your degree
In your last separation from me
Congratulations
You've graduated
To being alone by yourself
Let me throw you a party, farewell
Farewell, farewell, farewell, farewell well well well...

Congratulations, yeah yeah yeah
