* Nas "my medicine" sample plays in background throughout song *

[Guru]

Yo, son, pass me the medicine...

[Ini Kamoze]

Ah...

Yes, Ini Kamoze alongside the Guru

Baby, I got red eyes

What? I got red eyes

I got red eyes, what?

I got red eyes

Gimme the medicine, I am no leprichan

It's the dealin of the nation

I used to understand, but now I overstand

I'm freakin herbs, man

Yes, I am...

[Guru]

My skills boom through the smoke filled room

Feelin the contact like the Mack, I then consume

All fools who blunder, so I take them under ground, cuz I got the crazy phat sounds

I blend it with jazz and mystify the masses

Huh, we teach blunt rollin classes

[True Master]

My dialect reflects hip hop at it's best after I fat burn of cess, and yes, I guess that you could call it habitual

(Why?) Cuz every day is a ritual

[Ini Kamoze]

Hit from a Thai stick, not come from cocoa whip

My knee gonna never skip cuz a man like me don't never slip

As we elevate, my ghetto mindstate

Cooked like a dove plate, but wait, but wait

Red eyes, what? I got red eyes
Huh, tell ya what
Red eyes, what? I got red eyes
Hey

[True Master]

Determined energetic, born to succeed
Independently minded (Are you ambitious?) Indeed
New Breed and suckers can't compare
To the Master, the truth got you trapped in the square You're restricted, while I'm unlimited, gifted and I'm even iller when I'm lifted Stimulated in the dome on the microphone after a bone, Guru, why don't ya take em home?

[Guru]

Yes, I bring heat, so feel the warmth from my free speech
Believe in Ja, the ganjha helps me reach my creative leaves of enlightenment and when I'm writin then, you know just who's on the mic again
Fools on the map kid, you took a nap kid
Takin me out is an impossible task kid
I spark you up, lock you up, huh, now you gone
You should've paid attention way back when you were warned
You're too into business, I take gifts of my spliff
I change into what an expert will never quiz

[Chorus x2: Guru]

The medicine, the medicine, the medicine
Lah will bring us back again
The medicine, the medicine, the medicine
Ja is comin back again

[Ini Kamoze]

Now I'm comin up, so don't be runnin up on my crew, big up, Guru pass the cup

Red eyes, what? I got red eyes

Pass the medicine, I am no leprichan
It's the dealin of the nation
I used to understand, but now I overstand
I'm freakin herbs, man
Yes, I am...

Red eyes, I got red eyes
What? I got red eyes

Red-red-red-red eyes
What?
