'M not trying to fool you
I'm just trying to explain
How my love for you is more than mystifying
Oh baby my love is blind

In the light it smiles from your face
I feel the space where love is inside
The light it smiles from your face
Melts my mind away

Once I thought I loved you
While I really was trying to find
A way of touching my own reality
Oh baby I'm still trying

In the light it smiles from your face
I feel the space where love is inside
The light it smiles from your face
Melts my mind away
Hey hey hey

Let me learn to know you
Can you show me a sign tonight
I do believe I need to be near you now
Oh baby love shines

In the light it smiles from your face
I feel the space where love is inside
The light it smiles from your face
Melts my mind away

The light it smiles from your face
Fix me the space where love is inside
The light it smiles from your face
Melts my mind away
