A dangerous drifter's in town
Wearing black boots and a frown.
He keeps on bringing 'em down.
A dangerous drifter's in town.

He's starting to see double.
He's causing lots of trouble.
He's wheeling, he's dealing,
He's hanging from the ceiling!

A dangerous drifter's in town
Wearing black shades in the crowd.
Well, I don't think he likes me, let's
Go have a look-see.
A dangerous drifter's in town!

He's starting to see double.
He's causing lots of trouble.
He's wheeling, he's dealing,
He's hanging from the ceiling!

A dangerous drifter's in town
Wearing black boots and a frown.
He keeps on pulling us down.
A dangerous drifter's in town!

He wants to move his booty.
He's shaking loose his cooties.
He wants to limbo low-low!
He's got to hear that solo!

And if you knew that cat like we all did.
You'd know why we cracked grins when he tipped his lid.
