I think I've made a big mistake
I didn't want to go that way
Bury another dog, shut another gate
I fooled around and got away
We're in it any other day
Could you believe one hundred twenty in the shade

Thanks a lot
It gets so hot
And we're living in it like it or not

You never fail to interrupt
You turn away and then erupt
I think the temperature is always going up
You come undone and never dream
You show your teeth and fall asleep
And every day we're up and down from the heat

Thanks a lot
It gets so hot
And we're living in it like it or not
Thanks a lot

It gets so hot
And we're living in it like it or not
And we're given to the beat of the clock
And I'm just going through the motions
In a way I don't believe and can't stop

I didn't want to run away
In it any other day
I'm sick of living in this state
I got to get up just to realize it's so so cold

And we're living in it like it or not
Thanks a lot
It gets so hot
And we're living in it like it or not
Yeah we're given to the beat of the clock
And I'm just going through the motions
In a way I don't believe and can't stop
